DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1 and 7-17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Wachtler et al. (US 4,784,471).

The reference discloses a fluorinated-cyclohexylbenzonitrile compound represented by the general formula A on col. 10 and the claims. The reference compound is useful as liquid crystal composition in electrooptical display device. The Examples A and C of the reference read on the present invention. The reference anticipates the claimed invention.

Double Patenting

3. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

4. Claims 1, 9-11, 18-21, 23, 36-39 and 41 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-3 of U.S. Patent No. 5,891,360. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claimed compound overlaps with US '360.

5. Claims 1 and 7-17 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1-13 of U.S. Patent No. 6,284,154. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claimed compound overlaps with US '154.

6. Claims 18-53 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1-5 of U.S. Patent No. 5,458,805. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because the claimed compound overlaps with US '805.

Response to Arguments

7. Applicant's arguments filed 2/3/2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive because the amended claims do not overcome the previous rejections. The amended claims merely split the original claim 1. See the rejections above.

Conclusion

8. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
